A BILL

To provide for an analysis of the secondary and tertiary Arab boycotts of United States firms doing business with Israel, and for other purposes.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3 SECTION 1. FINDINGS.
- 4 The Congress finds that—
- 5 (1) boycotts fostered or imposed by foreign
- 6 countries against other countries friendly to the
- 7 United States or against any United States person
- 8 are discriminatory trade barriers to international
- 9 trade;

- 1 (2) the United States should encourage major 2 trading nations of the world engaged in the export 3 of goods or technology to refuse to take action which 4 would have the effect of furthering or supporting 5 boycotts imposed by any foreign country or associa-6 tion against a country friendly to the United States 7 or against any United States person;
 - (3) the United States Trade Representative should, in view of the foregoing, be commended for including the Arab boycott in the 1992 National Trade Estimate Report on Foreign Trade Barriers; and
- 13 (4) future national trade estimate reports 14 should include expanded information with respect to 15 the Arab boycott.
- 16 SEC. 2. EXPANSION OF REPORTING ON ARAB LEAGUE BOY-
- 17 COTT.

- 18 (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 181 of the Trade Act of
- 19 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2241) is amended by adding at the end
- 20 the following new subsection:
- 21 "(d) Analysis of Arab Boycott.—An analysis
- 22 under subsection (a) shall include—
- "(1) a country-by-country analysis of the extent
- 24 to which the government of each such country per-
- 25 mits or encourages businesses in that country to

- comply with the secondary and tertiary Arab boycotts of United States businesses that do business with (or invest in) Israel, including the identification of specific activities to enforce the boycotts, "(2) an analysis of the differences in how for-
- 5 "(2) an analysis of the differences in how for-6 eign countries blacklist businesses and enforce the 7 boycotts, and
- 8 "(3) an estimate of—
- 9 "(A) the value of additional goods and 10 services of the United States, and
- 11 "(B) the value of additional foreign direct 12 investment of the United States,
- that would have been exported to, or invested in, each foreign country during the calendar year if the boycotts did not exist.".
- 16 (b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by 17 this section shall apply to calendar years 1994 and there18 after.

19 SEC. 3. NEGOTIATING OBJECTIVE.

- It is the sense of the Congress that the United States
- 21 Trade Representative and other appropriate officials of
- 22 the United States Government should give the highest pri-
- 23 ority to seeking an end to enforcement of, and compliance
- 24 with, the secondary and tertiary Arab boycotts.
